Cocktails, Smorgasbord

Curlers Dress Up

Nobody knew anybody at the recent Victoria Curling Club dinner.

That is until the ladies took a second look at each other in chic cocktail dresses, furs and finery and recognized rink mates and old friends.

The occasion was a cocktail party and smorgasbord for members and players of the Ladies' Curling Association B.C. playdowns held this week at the club.

Members are so used to seeing each other in slacks, heavy sweaters, hair pinned up under tams and scarves and all with brooms that it was a shock to some.

Of all the women's groups in Victoria, the curling clubs seem to have the most mirthful, riotous good time on and off the ice.

More than 160 gathered at the club Tuesday evening for a dinner of delicacies prepared mainly by Mrs. H. Tarves, convener.

HEAD TABLE

Seated at the head table were Mrs. Betty Wills, past provincial president; Mr. and Mrs. W. Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. C. Rutledge, Mrs. T. Henschke, Vernon, B.C., newly named provincial president; Mrs. Neil Watson, Miss Nell Usher, Mr. and Mrs. Max Zabel, Mr. Charles Hodgson, president of Victoria Curling Club, and Mrs. Hodgson; Mrs. Kenneth Sturrock, Mrs. M. Brennan, Mrs. George Goode, Nanaimo; Mrs. W. Gallagher, Mrs. H. Clarke and Mrs. H. Tarves, convener for the evening.

Replica of the Parliament Buildings centred head table, flanked by silver bowls of iris and white tulips and blue candles. Whole upstairs lounge, where the party was held, was decorated with colorful murals of fish, Cadborosaurus (Caddy) and comic curlers. Fish net was draped from the ceiling.

GAY GOWNS

Gay cotton print floor-length gowns were worn by serviteurs Mrs. Alan Smith, Miss Kay Trevelyan and Miss Daphne Johnson.

Smorgasbord table was centred with daffodils, pink stocks and peach-toned carnations.

A purse and past-president's pin was presented to Mrs. Wills by Mrs. I. Hansen, Trail, on behalf of LCA.

Following dinner, a program arranged by Mrs. D. R. Fraser, Victoria, was presented. An hilarious fashion show giving styles of 1905 to 1970 and a Parisian skit were enjoyed. Members of Victoria Club took part in the entertainment. Arlene Atkinson and Jamie Troy, presented a program of Scotch dancing and piping.
